KIMBA M. WOOD, United States District Judge:

Two motions for reconsideration are the subject of this Order.

First, Defendant has moved for reconsideration of the Court's ruling regarding the admissibility of Plaintiff's testimony that John Doe No. 8 pushed Plaintiff on March 21, 2012, prior to her interaction with then-Sergeant Mattera. (ECF No. 456.) Included in Defendant's motion were four exhibits. By May 12, 2022, at 5 p.m., Defendant must submit, in addition to the four exhibits it already submitted, all excerpts from the 2018 pre-trial conference and 2018 trial transcripts that would be relevant to Defendant's motion. By May 12, 2022 at 5 p.m., Plaintiff may submit a memorandum of law in opposition to this motion. This memorandum is not to exceed eight double-spaced pages. Plaintiff may also include transcript excerpts that would be relevant.

Second, Plaintiff has moved for reconsideration of the Court's ruling regarding the admissibility of the NYPD Patrol Guide § 203-11. (ECF No. 459.) By May 13, 2022, at 5:00 p.m., Defendant may submit a memorandum of law in opposition to this motion. This
